Public Hearing on Sunshine Market rules set for Feb. 24

LĪHU'E – The Office of Economic Development is announcing that a public hearing is set for Feb. 24 on proposed amendments to the Sunshine Market rules for the County of Kaua'i.

The public hearing will take place from 3 to 5 p.m., at the Kaua'i War Memorial Convention Hall, Exhibit Hall A, located at 4191 Hardy Street in Līhu'e.

The Office of Economic Development proposes to amend its existing Sunshine Market rules by:

- 1) Incorporating the changes passed in Ordinance No. 1041 to Chapter 23, Section 23-3.8 that includes:
 - a. Adding additional products allowed to be sold at the Sunshine Markets including red meat and white meat raised on a farmer's property, certified mushrooms, fowl eggs, in season legally obtained shellfish, in season legally obtained whole fish caught from local water, and live farm raised fish grown by Kaua'i farmers;
 - b. Changing the definition of Agricultural Produce/Products;
 - c. Adding language requiring the provision of copies of drivers licenses and vehicle insurance each time renewed by the Sunshine Market vendors;
 - d. Requiring number of farmers/vendor signatures needed for petition of rules change from thirty to fifty;

- e. Requiring display of Sunshine Market permits and price lists at vendor stalls;
and
- f. Minor non-substantive changes in formatting and language.

“The new rules allow the expansion of available produce buyers will find at the County of Kaua‘i Sunshine Markets,” said Robbie Melton, director of the Office of Economic Development. “Our ultimate goal is to make our Sunshine Markets a must visit location for our residents and visitors.”

All interested persons who wish to present their testimony or comments on changes may do so at the public hearing on Feb. 24. Written testimony or comments on changes prior to the hearing may be submitted to the Office of Economic Development by mail, facsimile, or via email to tmhaumea@kauai.gov or 808-241-6399 (fax) no later than 2 p.m. on Feb. 24. Copies of the proposed amendments are available at the Office of Economic Development in the Līhu‘e Civic Center, Mo‘ikeha Building, 4444 Rice St. Suite 200, Līhu‘e, during normal business hours, or on the department’s website www.kauai.gov/oed.
