SUBJECT	DISCUSSION	ACTION
	Commission Specialist Nani Sadora read page 12, Alekoko (Menehune) Fishponds (Līhu‘e District) portion of the 2015 report to the Kaua‘i County Council and Mayor Bernard Carvalho, Jr., 99 page document. (Documents on file) Ms. Sadora concluded her report with a recommendation to acquire the two tax map key parcels, (4) 3-2-001:001 and (4) 3-1-001:012, for prevention of residential development which could impact the historical cultural site. The recommendation was to partner with local non-profit Mālama Hulē‘ia who would restore and protect the fishpond and its surrounding areas. Mr. Hull briefly updated the commission on the status of the property. The site had been on the Open Space recommendation to purchase list for several years and was recently placed up for public sale by owners, Okada Trucking Company, Ltd. The County and County Council were currently meeting to discuss possible use of Open Space Commission funds to purchase the two parcels. Mr. Hull requested that the Commission provide feedback and comments to the County Council. Mālama Hulē‘ia Board President Jen Tenbruggencate thanked the commission for allowing them the opportunity to present. Before beginning the presentation the commission was asked if they could open up with an oli, which was part of their protocol. Field Operations Manager Peleke Flores led the oli of Nā ‘Aumākua. Mr. Tenbruggencate said the property was listed for three million subject to appraisal and there would be additional fees and expenses; however, the request was for the commission to recommend and the county authorize use of open space funds to purchase the two parcels up to the full appraised value. The parcels aligned with the purpose of the fund and they were at risk of losing the property to private developers. Aloha Aina Project and The Trust for Public Land (TPL) Manager Reyna Ramolete Hayashi shared a Alakoko Fishpond power point presentation; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. TPL was a non-profit land conservation organization whose mission was to protect native land for Hawai‘i’s people.

Alakoko Fishpond displayed the finest example of inland loko kuapā (brackish water walled fishpond) in Hawai‘i. It showed Hawaiian innovation, engineering, hydrology, aqua culture, biology and model for nature resource management. 5. The two parcels total 102 acres: TMK 3-2-001-001 (55.408 acres) fishpond parcel TMK 3-1-001-012 (46.641 acres) stream parcel 6. TPL and Mālama Hulē‘ia has been in open discussions with the Owners who were willing to sell to TPL and Mālama Hulē‘ia. An appraiser was contracted and the final report should be completed in 30-45 days. 7. TPL would facilitate the purchase of the two parcels and deed to Mālama Hulē‘ia to become the future owner and steward of the property. Mālama Hulē‘ia currently held a 20-year lease agreement. Executive Director Sara Bowen and Field Operations Manager Peleke Flores of Mālama Hulē‘ia shared a 16-page power point presentation. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Shared the formation of Mālama Hulē‘ia and mission and vision statements and efforts to eradicate and remove the invasive red mangrove. 2. Alakoko Fishpond was carbon dated to be 600 years old and registered under the National Register of Historic Places in 1973. 3. Ancient stories tell a tale that the Menehune built the first foundation of the fishpond wall with stones from Makaweli and was later finished with stones from the local area and Kōloa. 4. The manmade kuapā (wall) was 2,700 feet long with stone facing the river and dirt mound on the other side. Ms. Bowen shared that their work had a huge impact on erosion control and runoffs. Their plan was to remove the estimated 70 acres of mangrove and replant with native plants that would lay the foundation for a healthy thriving eco system and reestablish native wetland plants for fisheries and aqua life.

Secured a one million grant from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife 3. October 2018 began removal of mangrove 4. Goal was to clear area to its original water passage 5. Ms. Ramolette Hayashi replied that Okada Trucking provided a license agreement in 2017 to access the property and restore Alakoko Fishpond as required by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife grant. Mālama Hulē‘ia started the project in 2018. Ms. Ono inquired if the three million purchase was subject to TPL providing proof of funding. Ms. Ramolette Hayashi replied that they were actively doing their due diligence and seeking further assistance with the purchase. County Attorney Laura Barzilai asked if they looked into funding from the State of Hawai‘i Legacy Land Conservation Program. Ms. Ramolette Hayashi replied that the issue with those programs were the timelines and after going through a lengthy process, grant funds would not be available until 2023. Vice Chair Kimura suggested they secure an option agreement to safe guard the two parcels until funding could be finalized. Mālama Hulē‘ia was now concentrating on purchasing the property and have not ventured into any feasible business plan of food production; however, they project a healthy fishpond that could produce a variety of plant and fish and the positive impact it would have on the shoreline fish supply. The commission thanked Mālama Hulē‘ia for the great work they were doing and offered assistance through letters of endorsement. Vice Chair Kimura asked if the Open Space currently had sufficient funds to purchase the property without impacting other projects. Mr. Hull said it should be available by July 2021 and that funding this project would not take away resources from other projects that were approved in the past.	Vice Chair Kimura moved to support the acquisition of 55,408 and 46.641 acre parcels located in Līhu‘e District further identified as Tax Map Keys (4) 3-2-001:001 and (4) 3-1-001:012 that meet the commissions criteria to acquire land or property entitlements for the following purposes; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
